

Unit 2 Research Project Part 5: Methodology

As a group, Methodology section of your Research Project.

Data Collection portion (can have multiple sub sections)

- Explain how you will gather data and how you determined the method(s).
- Detail how you will measure all data. How will you maintain reliability and validity?
- What is your population and sample? How did you determine both?

Analysis portion (can have multiple sub sections)

Do not analyze the data until you are done collecting all the data you need.

- How did you analyze your data?
- What did you have to do to have it make sense? Did you use coding? Any omissions?
- What does your data show? (Averages, correlations, trends, etc.) Be very detailed
- What data is insufficient? What are the limitations?
- Create at least one chart/table/or graph to organize and show relevant information.
- Name each chart/table/graph so that you can reference it within your paper.

Do not make any conclusions about your question or hypothesis. Save that for your conclusion section.
